

What Can the Community Members Do Against Child Marriage?

- Organize public meetings and invite relevant professionals, public and religious figures (e.g. imams, Syrian sheikhs, police officers, doctors, teachers etc.) to talk about children's rights, adverse consequences of child marriage, the importance of childhood, children's healthy development and girls' education and legal sanctions against child marriages
- Inform others around you about the negative consequences of child marriage on girls' education, health etc.
- Inform others around you about negative consequences of child marriage on girls' education and health.
- Report cases to authorities and inform other community members to call the Social Support Hotline Number 183 or apply to the Provincial Directorates of Family and Social Policies in person if/when needed to get information about child marriages or report a child marriage.

Contact Numbers in the risk/event of Child Marriage

Anyone who has concerns or information of a case and/or risk of child marriage has the obligation to notify the relevant authorities.

Ministry of Family and Social Policies Social Support Hotline

183

Emergency Police

155

Emergency Gendarmerie

156

Communication Centre for Foreigners

157

UNCHR-ASAM Counselling Line

444 48 68

Refugee Support Hotline

0850 888 0 539

Social Services Centres

Public Hospitals

CARE

Developed by CARE with the technical support of UNICEF.

Child Marriage

